

Sam Malloy

Sam Malloy is a contemporary circus artist driven by their passion to provide a safe, challenging, and fun learning environment for their students and peers. They aim to help their students work hard and laugh hard.

COACHING EXPERIENCE

Aerial Dance Marin - Instructor

April 2018 - July 2019, San Rafael, CA

Intermediate level fabric, trapeze, and lyra class.

San Anselmo Rec. Center - Child Safety Supervisor and Instructor

June 2016 to July 2019, San Anselmo, CA

Open play sessions and birthday parties for children. Mixed-level circus arts class, focusing on flexibility, strength, and skills on Fabric and Lyra.

Athletic Playground - Instructor

August 2018 - July 2019, Emeryville, CA

Mixed level Lyra classes. Assisted in Acro focused camp for youth aged 4-15.

PERFORMANCE EXPERIENCE

New England Center for Circus Arts NEXUS

April 2021 - June 2021, Brattleboro, VT

Performed fabric and chinese pole as well as juggling and dance in ProTrack 2nd year's culminating show. Filmed and aired online.

EDUCATION

New England Center for Circus Arts Professional Training Program

September 2019 - June 2022, Brattleboro, VT

Kinetic Arts Center, - Spire

August 2018 - June 2019, Oakland, CA

Archie Williams High School, - GED

August 2015 - June 2019, San Anselmo, CA

Brattleboro, VT 05301

(415) 686-1989

sam.lm.malloy@gmail.com

website

ABOUT

Pronouns - they/them

Height - 5'5"

Weight - 128 lbs

Age - 21 years

SKILLS

Fabric - primary discipline

Chinese Pole - secondary discipline.

Queer and trans rights - High school Gender and Sexuality Alliance (GSA) club secretary

Mental Health - Committee member of Growing Roots: The Young Adult Services Project, Marin County, CA.

High school Wellness center development group leader.

Circus - Partner acrobatics, straps, lyra, juggling, hand balancing

Cake Decoration - Developed traditional and creative cake decoration skills while working part time during ProTrack